

Su-30MKI fighter aircraft, demonstrating the weapon's precision and targeting capability. This test strengthens India's air strike capabilities and its defense deterrence.

6. China to Expand Its Military Exercises Near Taiwan

China has announced plans to expand its military drills near Taiwan. These exercises are a show of force aimed at signaling China's strong opposition to Taiwan's growing international presence. The move escalates tensions in the region.

7. India Signs Deal for 26 French Rafale Fighter Jets

India has signed a deal with France for the procurement of 26 Rafale fighter jets, enhancing its air defense capabilities. The agreement is expected to further strengthen the strategic defense partnership between India and France, with the jets slated to join the Indian Air Force by 2027.